This dataset is made freely available to academic and non-academic entities for non-commercial purposes such as academic research, teaching, scientific publications, or personal experimentation. Permission is granted to use, copy, and distribute the data given that you agree:

1. Although every effort has been made to ensure accuracy, Intelligent Computing Laboratory/ Chinese Academy of Sciences does not accept any responsibility for errors or omissions.
2. That you include a reference to the above publication in any published work that makes use of the dataset.
3. That if you have altered the content of the dataset or created derivative work, prominent notice is made so that any recipients know that they are not receiving the original data.
4. That you may not use or distribute the dataset or any derivative work for commercial purposes as, for example, licensing or selling the data, or using the data with a purpose to procure a commercial gain.
5. Do not share the password or datasets with others (exception, co-authors on the current paper).
6. If you modify the data in anyway, please give the modified data back to the archive before you submit your paper (that way a diligent reviewer can test your claims while the paper is under review).
7. Where possible, we strongly advocate testing and publishing results on all datasets, unless of course you are making an explicit claim for only a certain type of data.
8. Where possible, make your code available.
9. Please reference the datasets in your paper as:

10. That this original license notice is retained with all copies or derivatives of the dataset.
11. That all rights not expressly granted to you are reserved by Intelligent Computing Laboratory, Chinese Academy of Sciences.

After reading the above, sign it with your full name, and email it to Intelligent Computing Laboratory, Chinese Academy of Sciences (xfwang@iim.ac.cn). If you are a graduate student/post-doc, you must discuss this with your adviser first and CC him/her when requesting the password.

- I have read the points above, and agree to all of them. Please send me the password.
- I have read the points above, but I do not agree to all of them. In particular, I do NOT agree with... (Please enumerate). Nevertheless, I want the data. Please send me the password.
